

Selected as one of the "World's Best Companies in Sustainable Growth 2026" by TIME Magazine and Statista

MatsukiyoCocokara & Co. (Headquarters: Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo; President: Kiyoo Matsumoto) has been named one of the "World's Best Companies in Sustainable Growth 2026" by TIME Magazine (US) and Statista (Germany).

■ Overview of "World's Best Companies in Sustainable Growth 2026"

This ranking, published by TIME magazine in collaboration with Statista, a global market research firm, is based on a selection of companies worldwide that disclose environmental data. It evaluates both corporate financial performance and environmental performance.

The ranking focuses on three key dimensions:

- Revenue Growth (high revenue growth compared to industry average)
- Financial Stability (financial health and resilience)
- Environmental Impact (e.g., low carbon footprint, low water consumption)

We have been highly evaluated by these criteria and selected as one of the top 500 companies in the world that have achieved sustainable growth as a result of our ongoing efforts to address ESG issues while growing our business.
